Message from our Grand Knight

On Saturday, May 20th, I had the great honor of representing Olde Saint Thomas Council at the 119th Pennsylvania State Convention of the Knights of Columbus.

A little over a two-hour ride with Tom Ludlow, up the Northeast Pa. Turnpike, we arrived at Kalahari Resort, Mount Pocono.

After our brief registration, we attended the Rosary Ceremony in the Convention Ballroom. Upon completion, the General Business Session commenced.

The room was filled with approximately 500 Brother Knights, which greatly impressed me.

There were formal reports from the State Chaplain, State Deputy, State Treasurer, State Secretary, State Warden and State Advocate, along with other Dignitaries, too many to mention.

There was also a 20-minute video from the Supreme Knight Carl A. Anderson. He thanked all Brother Knights for their combined efforts for helping needy people around the world with food, clothing, medicine, wheel chairs, etc. Some of his main themes were the recruitment of New Members and the importance of the K of C Insurance Program, stating that new members are the "Life Blood" of our organization.

I strongly believe that every Council Member should work toward attending one of these inspirational State Conventions. I personally left with a new and inspired commitment to our great Knights of Columbus.

Vivat Jesus,

Bob Morrow
