

SJHS Squire Gabe Schroeder is runner-up of International Essay Contest

The Knights of Columbus Supreme Council, New Haven, CT recently announced that Squire Gabe Schroeder of the St. Joseph High School Circle #5138 was the Grade 10 runner-up of the 2011-12 International Essay Contest. Gabe received a cash award and a certificate for his essay on the theme “The Responsibility of the Catholic Citizen in a Free Society.” Gabe’s essay stressed the importance of religious freedom and advanced to the international level after winning the local Knights of Columbus contest sponsored by the Allegheny-Kiski Assembly 928 and the PA State competition. The Knights of Columbus receives nearly 30,000 entries each year for this annual contest. (photo caption: Squire Gabe Schroeder is congratulated for his winning essay by Larry Barkowski, K of C State Youth and Squires Director)
